Dear Rosi,

How are you? I hope you are in the pink of health. I have something interesting to tell you about my visit to my grandparents' place during the school holidays.

My grandfather has a strawberry farm in Cameron Highlands. You know what? I was very excited when he asked me to follow him to pick the fruit. You should see the delicious-looking strawberries. They looked so fresh and mouth-watering. I just couldn't wait to have a bite of it.

That evening itself, my grandfather loaded baskets of strawberries into his small lorry and off we went to the night market. There, I saw many vendors with their fresh vegetables, fruits and flowers. Wow! The roses are really beautiful. They are in various colours and we could hardly find them in big bulks anywhere else.

Many people were already waiting to buy the fresh flowers. You will be shocked to hear the price of the roses. It was unbelievably low! They were sold like hot cakes.

Within an hour, my grandfather managed to sell all his strawberries. I was so delightful to see his empty baskets. I grinned at him. He patted on my shoulder and winked at me. I wonder whether he knew what I want ... My strawberry-shaped pillow. Hooray!

Hope we'll meet after the UPSR exam.

Your friend,

Elisa
