SECTION C*20 marksTime suggested: 20 minutesQuestion 4

Read the article below.

Did you know the kitchen can be a dangerous place if you are not careful? You can keep your kitchen safe by following these tips. First, make sure all the wires, cords and plugs on your appliances are not frayed. The plugs should have 3-prong grounded connections. This would include toasters, blenders, microwave ovens, cake mixers, coffee makers and other electrical appliances. You should also make sure that the blender is unplugged and switched off before touching the blades.

When you have pots and pans cooking on the stove, do not leave them unattended. Also, avoid wearing inappropriate clothing such as loose sleeves and sweaters while cooking. Make sure to keep dish towels, pot holders and oven mitts away from the stove. Keep matches and lighters in places where children cannot easily reach them. It is also good to keep a fire extinguisher in or near a kitchen. However, it should not be kept too close to the stove.

When cutting things with a knife, always cut facing away from your body, as it can slip and injure you. Furthermore, do not try to catch the knife as it falls. It is better for it to hit the floor than to cut your hand.

Make sure to clean up spills immediately as wet floors are slippery. Keep the kitchen floor clear of toys and other items. Finally, you should put a childproof lock not only on the medicines or detergent cabinets but also on your oven.

Question 5

I know a funny little man,
 As quiet as a mouse,
 Who does the mischief that is done
 In everybody's house.
 There's no one ever sees his face,
 And yet we all agree
 That every plate we break was cracked
 By Mr. Nobody

'Tis he who always tears our books,
 who leaves our doors ajar;
 he pulls the buttons from our shirts,
 and scatters pins afar,

that squeaking door will always squeak

because of this you see:
 we leave the oiling to be done
 by Mr. Nobody.

He puts damp wood upon the fire,
 So kettles cannot boil;
 His are the feet that bring in mud
 And all the carpets soil.
 The papers always are mislaid,
 Who had them last but he?
 There's no one tosses them about

The finger marks upon the door
 By none of us are made;
 We never leave the blinds
 unclosed,
 To let the curtains fade;
 The ink we never spill; the boots
 That lying around you see
 Are not our boots- they all belong To Mr. Nobody.

(a) Who is this 'funny little man'?

_____ (1 mark)

(b) Everyone claims that Mr. Nobody has done all the mischief at home. State 2 of the mischief done.

i. _____

ii. _____ (2 marks)

(c) In your opinion, is it right to blame Mr. Nobody for the mischief? Give a reason.
